

cional wins the Copa Libertadores championship, beating Mexico's Guadalajara 5-3 on aggregate and 6-0 on points.

Aug. 21: Barcelona beats Sevilla 5-3 on aggregate to win the Spanish Super Cup.

Inter Milan wins the Italian Super Cup for the fifth time, beating Roma 3-1.

Aug. 22: Arjun Atwal becomes the first Indian to win a PGA Tour event at the Wyndham Championship in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Aug. 27: Atletico Madrid wins the UEFA Super Cup for the first time with a 2-0 victory over Inter Milan in Monaco.

Aug. 28: Pakistan's tour to England comes under a spot-fixing cloud following the arrest of bookie Mazher Majeed, who had said to British tabloid News of the World that he bribed Pakistan bowlers Mohammad Asif and Mohammad Amir to deliberately bowl no-balls.

Aug. 29: McLaren's Lewis Hamilton wins the Belgian Grand Prix.

England completes a 3-1 series win after beating Pakistan by an innings and 225 runs in the fourth Test at Lord's.

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 3: ICC suspends Pakistan's captain Salman Butt and fast bowlers Mohammad Amir and Mohammad Asif over allegations of match-fixing.

Sept. 4: The Indian men's team wins the recurve gold at the World Cup archery Stage IV in Shanghai, beating Japan 224 points to 220.

Sept. 8: Swimmer Richa Mishra tests positive for a prohibited substance.

Sept. 10: Rohan Bopanna and Aisam ul-Haq Qureshi pair loses the U.S. Open men's doubles final to the top-seeds Bob and Mike Bryan 6-7(5), 6-7(4).

Sept. 12: Belgian Kim Clijsters defends her U.S. Open tennis title in New York.

Sept. 13: Sushil Kumar makes history by becoming the first Indian to win a World wrestling championship gold medal, overpowering Russia's Alan Gogaev to win the 66 kg freestyle title in Moscow.

Sept. 14: World No. 1 Rafael Nadal completes a career Grand Slam by capturing his first U.S. Open crown, defeating Serbian third seed Novak Djokovic 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2 in the final in New York.

Sept. 19: India rallies to beat Brazil 3-2 in a Davis Cup play-off in Chennai, making it the first occasion that the country won a tie after facing a 0-2 deficit.

John Isner of the U.S. (left) and France's Nicolas Mahut played a record-breaking match at Wimbledon.

Sept. 24: Eoin Morgan's century sees England through to a 121-run victory against Pakistan in Southampton, giving it a 3-2 series win.

Sept. 26: World champion wrestler Sushil Kumar's coach Yashvir Singh is chosen by the International Wrestling Federation as Coach of the Year 2010.

Sept. 27: Chennai Super Kings wins the Champions League Twenty20 tournament, defeating Eastern Cape Warriors by eight wickets in the final.

OCTOBER

Oct. 7: India's Ravinder Singh (60 kg), Sanjay (74 kg) and Anil Kumar (96 kg) win CWG wrestling titles.

Oct. 8: Jamaica's Lerone Clarke wins CWG 100m gold in a time of 10.12 seconds.

Oct. 9: Alka Tomar and Anita clinch gold in their respective categories - 59 kg and 67 kg - in women's wrestling. Somdev Devvarman became India's first tennis gold medalist at the CWG with a 6-4, 6-2 win over Australia's Greg Jones.

Oct. 10: Gagan Narang wins his fourth gold of the Delhi CWG, defending 3-position rifle individual title. Australia's Anastasia Rodionova wins the CWG women's singles with 6-3, 2-6, 7-6(3) result over Sania Mirza.

Oct. 11: Krishna Poonia wins India's second-ever CWG gold in athletics with a top finish in the women's discus throw.

Oct. 12: Heena Sidhu shoots 384 to clinch the women's air pistol pairs gold in the CWG. India's women's relay team of (A.C. Ashwini, Manjeet Kaur, Mandeep Kaur and Sini Jose) runs to gold medal, finishing ahead of Nigeria and England.

Oct. 13: Sharath Kamal and Subhagit Saha win the CWG table tennis doubles gold. Three Indian boxers win gold - Suranjay Singh (52 kg), Manoj Kumar (64 kg) and Paramjeet Samota (plus-91 kg).

Oct. 14: Saina Nehwal wins gold in badminton singles gold Australia thrashes India 8-0 in the men's hockey final. CWG Delhi comes to an end. India finishes in second place in the medals tally.

Oct. 19: Tamil Nadu wins the South Zone T-20 cricket tournament for Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy in Hyderabad.

Oct. 23: Mr. N. Ramachandran gets re-elected to the post of World Squash Federation president for another two-year term.

Oct. 24: Roger Federer equals Pete Sampras' career haul of 64 ATP titles with a 6-4, 6-3 win over Florian Mayer in the Stockholm Open.

Oct. 25: Sachin Tendulkar becomes the only current cricketer to be named in ESPN-Cricinfo's all-time Test World XI.

Oct. 29: Caroline Wozniacki assures herself of the year-end No.1 WTA ranking, becoming the first Danish woman to do so.

Oct. 30: Olympic champion Elena Dementieva announces her retirement at the age of 29 after losing at the WTA Tour Championships in Doha.

NOVEMBER

Nov. 1: Debutant medium pacer Deepak Chahar of Rajasthan takes eight wickets for 10 runs as Hyderabad (21) plummets to the lowest total in the history of the Ranji Trophy

Nov. 6: Sri Lanka claims its first-ever series in Australia after a 29-run victory in the second ODI in Sydney.

Nov. 7: Chirag United wins the Durand Cup in New Delhi.

Nov. 13: Sebastian Vettel of Red Bull becomes the youngest Formula One champion in history with a win in the season-ending Abu Dhabi Grand Prix.

Nov. 14: Pankaj Advani wins a Wrestler Sushil Kumar made India proud by winning the World Championship in Moscow.

World's highest wicket taker, Sri Lanka's Muttiah Muralitharan, retired from Test cricket.

gold medal in the Asian Games men's billiards tournament in China.

Nov. 15: The Indian men's team (Yasin Merchant, Aditya Mehta and Brijesh Damani) wins silver in the team snooker event at the Asian Games.

Nov. 16: Viradhwal Khade wins the 50m butterfly bronze at the Asian Games in a time of 24.31s.

Nov. 20: Bajrang Lal Takhar wins gold in the men's rowing single sculls event at the Asian Games.

Nov. 21: Preeja Sreedharan and Kavita Raut finish an unprecedented one-two in the 10,000 metres at the Asian Games; Sudha Singh wins the 3000 metres steeplechase gold. Ronjan Sodhi wins double trap gold in shooting.

Nov. 22: Somdev Devvarman and Sanam Singh clinch the tennis men's doubles gold medal in the Asian Games.

Nov. 23: Somdev Devvarman wins the Asian Games men's singles crown.

India beats New Zealand by an innings and 198 runs in Nagpur, clinching the Test series 1-0.

Nov. 24: Home favourite Liu Xiang wins the 110m hurdles in a time of 13.09s in Guangzhou.

China wins the women's hockey gold, beating South Korea by penalty strokes after a goalless encounter.

Nov. 25: Pakistan beats Malaysia 2-0 to win the Asian Games Men's hockey gold, while India gets bronze after a 1-0 win over South Korea.

Boxer Vikas Krishan beats defending champion Hu Qing of China to claim the 60 kg category gold.

Nov. 26: The Indian women's 4x400m relay team (Manjeet Kaur, Sini Jose, Mandeep Kaur and A.C. Ashwini) wins the gold medal at the Asian Games.

Vijender Singh bags the boxing middleweight gold by beating two-time World champion Abbas Atoev of Uzbekistan in the Asian Games.

Nov. 27: Rohan Bopanna and Aisam-ul-Haq Qureshi bag the Arthur Ashe Humanitarian of The Year award.

Nov. 29: Roger Federer wins the year-end London World Tour

DECEMBER

Dec. 4: India claims the five match ODI series against New Zealand with its third win (by nine-wickets) on the trot in the third ODI at Vadodara.

Dec. 5: Serbia wins the Davis Cup 3-2 after Novak Djokovic and Viktor Troicki win the reverse singles rubbers against Gael Monfils and Michael Llodra, respectively.

Dec. 10: India wins the five-match ODI series against New Zealand and 5-0, with an eight-wicket win in the final ODI at Chennai.

Dec. 12: Saina Nehwal wins the fourth Super Series title of her career and third of the year after getting past Shixian Wang of China in the final.

Dec. 15: Magnus Carlsen clinches the London Chess Classic tournament while Viswanathan Anand and Luke McShane finish joint second.

Dec. 18: Inter Milan wins the Club World Cup with a 3-0 victory over TP Mazembe in the final at Abu Dhabi.

Dec. 20: Footballer Samuel Eto'o is named African Player-of-the-year for a record fourth time.

Dec. 29: India beat South Africa by 87 runs to win the second cricket Test in Durban.

England defeats Australia by an innings and 157 runs in the fourth cricket Test in Melbourne to lead 2-1 in the Ashes series.

Saina Nehwal capped a wonderful year in December by winning the Hong Kong Super Series.

The perfect leader with the perfect range

sharon PLATINUM PLY Elegance forever	sharon GOLD PLY Strong to the core	sharon GOLD BLOCK BOARD Strong to the core	sharon GOLD FILM FACED PLY Strong to the core	sharon GOLD FLUSH DOOR Strong to the core	sharon GOLD SHUTTERING PLY Strong to the core
sharon MDF Interior Grade	sharon SILVER PLY Affordable Quality	sharon EXOTI PLY	sharon BURMA TEAK BLOCK BOARD	sharon BURMA TEAK PLY	sharon ELASTI PLY Flexible Elegance