STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Article 168 of the Constitution, inter alia, provides for constitution of two Houses in six States and one House in other States. Where there are two Houses of the Legislature of a State, one is known as Legislative Council and other as Legislative Assembly. At the commencement of article 168 of the Constitution, a Legislative Council for the erstwhile State of Madras was envisaged. The State was renamed as the State of Tamil Nadu vide the Madras State (Alteration of Name) Act, 1968. However, the Tamil Nadu Legislative Council was abolished with effect from the 1st November, 1986 vide the Tamil Nadu Legislative Council (Abolition) Act, 1986.

2. Clause (1) of article 169 of the Constitution provides that Parliament may, by law, provide for the abolition of the Legislative Council of a State having such a Council or for the creation of such a Council in a State having no such Council if the Legislative Assembly of the State passes a resolution to that effect by a majority of the total membership of the Assembly and by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members of the Assembly present and voting.

3. On the 26th July, 1996, the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly passed a resolution for creation of a Legislative Council in the State and a Bill, namely, the Legislative Council Bill, 1997 which provided for creation of a Legislative Council in the States of Punjab and Tamil Nadu was introduced in Lok Sabha on the 14th August, 1997 but the Bill lapsed on the dissolution of the Eleventh Lok Sabha. However, the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly passed another resolution on the 12th September, 2001 rescinding its earlier resolution dated the 26th July, 1996 and hence no further action for revival of the proposal could be taken.

4. On the 12th April, 2010, the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly passed a resolution in terms of clause (1) of article 169 of the Constitution for the creation of Legislative Council in that State. It is, accordingly, proposed to enact a law providing for the creation of Legislative Council for the State of Tamil Nadu with seventy-eight members paving way for giving better opportunity to people's participation in governance and decision making. The expenditure in respect of the Legislative Council will have to be borne by the Government of Tamil Nadu.

5. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects and also provides for matters supplemental, incidental and consequential to the creation of the proposed Legislative Council.
